INCLUSIVE community.

PARENTS FOR COMMUNITY LIVING KW

A CAMPAIGN OF COMPASSION & PROMISE

AS A COMMUNITY OF ABUNDANCE, WE ALL NEED TO PROTECT, SUPPORT AND EMPOWER THOSE WITH EXCEPTIONAL ABILITIES.

IN THE WATERLOO REGION THERE ARE:

- 526 adults waiting for residential services
- 573 adults waiting for employment/day support
- 250 adults waiting for respite services
- 500+ children waiting for respite

"We are a community in crisis, the demand for housing and support services outweighs what is currently available and far too many people are being left behind."
Kathy Loveys, Executive Director, Parents for Community Living

WE PARTNERED WITH TWO LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS TO CHANGE LIVES

In partnership with MennoHomes & St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church we are building a community space, teaching kitchen and affordable housing.

The community space will allow for meaningful programs that benefit the broader community and the teaching kitchen will be used to offer empowering and integrative programs for people with exceptional needs. The affordable housing apartments will provide much needed housing options for adults with exceptional needs who are looking forward to living independently in our community.
