Team Meeting Communication Activity

How to Play - Card Pieces

Need: enough people for at least three teams of 2 and playing cards

Instructions

1. Cut each playing card into half diagonally, then in half diagonally again, so you have four triangular pieces for each card.
2. Mix all the pieces together and put equal numbers of cards into as many envelopes as you have teams.
3. Divide people up into teams of three or four. You need at least three teams. If you're short of people, teams of two will work just as well.
4. Give each team an envelope of playing card pieces.
5. Each team has three minutes to sort its pieces, determine which ones it needs to make complete cards, and develop a bargaining strategy.
6. After three minutes, allow the teams to start bartering for pieces. People can barter on their own or collectively with their team. Give the teams eight minutes to barter.
7. When the time is up, count each team's completed cards. Whichever team has the most cards wins the round.

Advice for the Facilitator

After the activity, ask your team members to think about the strategies they used. Discuss these questions:

- Which negotiation strategies worked? Which didn't?
- What could they have done better?
- What other skills, such as active listening or empathy, did they need to use

RESILIENCE INVOLVES:

-  Maintaining stamina and performance under continued stress and to act effectively under pressure.
-  It includes bouncing back from disappointments or confrontations, and not letting them negatively influence ongoing performance.
-  It involves keeping one's emotions under control and restraining negative responses when provoked.
-  It includes expressing or resolving stressful situations in an appropriate way that doesn't harm self or others.
